Parents/caregivers are expected to transport their child to and from this event. If any parent/carer is able to help with transporting students to and from this event, please indicate this on the permission slip attached.

Alternatively, if you require transportation for your child to and from this event, please indicate this on the permission slip. Your child will need to be at school by 8.15am and wait outside the front administration office.

Please note that money paid without a returned permission slip and vice versa does not constitute attendance of the excursion.
